

Birthplace of Route 66 Festival

August 10-11, 2018

Birth of the Mother Road

U.S. 66, also known as Route 66, the Mother Road, the Main Street of America, and the Will Rogers Highway, was officially named "U.S. 66," via telegram at a meeting of highway officials in Springfield, Missouri on April 30, 1926. Calvin Coolidge was President, Prohibition was still in full swing, motion pictures were a year away from becoming "talkies," and Henry Ford had just lowered the price of the automobile. The stage was set for what would become not only the country's first cross-country highway, but an enduring piece of Americana that travelers from around the world still yearn to experience. In 1992, on the Mother Road's 66th anniversary, the Route 66 Association of Missouri designated Springfield as the official Birthplace of Route 66 with a placard, now located on the east side of Park Central Square

The Birthplace of Route 66 Festival was everything that was promoted in the news media. Vintage. Classic. Antique. However you call them, if you enjoy historic vehicles, you don't want to miss this big, two-day car show featuring hundreds of vehicles in numerous classes. Taking place in and around the Park Central Square area of downtown Springfield, there were cars and trucks that enthused everyone. We hope you were able to take in Motorcycle Village, along with parades, music, and exhibits.

Darryll Starbird and one of his cars, a singing Santa from Melbourne, Australia, Pogo Fred, bands, and a multitude of food/merchandise vendors were in attendance.

There was enough rain on Friday to wet everything. Still they were able to get in about half the parade.

Larry Fortner and other club members were parked on the square in front of the Heer's Building around to the Fox Theater. These spots were in an ideal location to watch the festivities. Two of the car club street rods were parked in the Shrine Mosque.

Springfield News-Leader: Letters to the Editor for August 26, 2018

Birthplace of Route 66 Festival 2018

Thank you, Springfield, for the great turnout

As a Birthplace of Route 66 Festival Springfield, Missouri, founder, it was encouraging and exciting to have the participation for the eighth annual festival. It was great that we had over 600 cars from all over the country, more than 4,000 motorcycles from as far away

Nixa Church of the Nazarene Max Arnold Memorial Car Show

Cool cars, free food, games—it was all at the Nixa Church of the Nazarene's Max Arnold Memorial Car Show. The show was part of Faith, Family and Fun Day August 18. The event, which was free and open to the public, featured a classic and hot rod car show, hamburgers and hot dogs, games and inflatables for kids to enjoy and even some giveaways.

Max and Sue's 1955 Chevy blue/white convertible was to be showcased but was being re-restored and wasn't there. Sue Arnold is a Lifetime Member of the Classic Chevy Club. She was busy flipping hamburgers for those who attended.

Other club members in attendance were

Jess and Melinda Owen

Dennis and Norma Taube

Donna and Jim Meyer

Jess Tomlin

Dave Walters and Yvonna Davis

Dennis won a certificate for free pizza

Dennis also won a car maintenance bucket of goodies as a door prize

Jess & Melinda won a lady's bucket of goodies as a door prize

Jess & Melinda won the Judges Trophy

as Australia and nearly 60,000 spectators from all over the world, making this the best festival yet! Thanks to Aaron Sachs and Associates, KY3, the city of Springfield and the West Central Neighborhood Alliance. The New Car Dealers of the Ozarks Branson Experience Stage continues to be a hit. Each year we add something different to up our game. This year's barbecue competition, the great music and motorcycle demonstrations, having Daryl Starbird and his car in the Shrine Mosque along with the Oreo 1953 Buick and several local classic rides was pretty "cool." The Old Glass Place Route 66 Exhibit Hall, coordinated by Glenda Pike, offered an air-conditioned place to see and visit with different Route 66 authors, collectors and associations.

But, the most exciting thing for me was the 300 cars that stayed in the parade and the nearly 1,000 spectators that braved the biggest rain storm we have had in months, standing under any overhang or umbrella to watch the parade and cheer us on. This would only happen in Springfield, Missouri, a real classic car and Route 66 town. I want to thank each and every one of you, and I look forward to seeing you next year for an even bigger and more exciting festival.

David J. Eslick, festival founder, Springfield

Note: Dave & Nancy Eslick are Classic Chevy Club members

4th ANNUAL Center Stage Classic Rumble
October 13th Live Music Awards and Prizes Great Food

Center Stage Grille & Bar

This year we are pulling out all the stops! In addition to live music inside, we have live bands playing outside on the 52 Chevy 13 ton stage! We're also planning activities for the kids and crafters/vendors as well. As with the prior three years, trophies will be unique. We are adding classes and judging for those who are interested and the Rumble (only vintage cars) too! 50/50 drawings and a all goes to help our local Vietnam Vet's. Did I mention the awesome food? And we have finally found a printer to make custom handouts for participants! Keep checking our website to see the latest details. Hope to see you there!
