Answer on Page 2

April Fool's Day is April 1

Why is All Fool's Day on April 1?

There are several theories about the origin on the April Fool's Day custom. One explanation focuses on the introduction of the Julian and the Gregorian calendar. From ancient times, people in some parts of Europe celebrated the New Year on or around the March Equinox. However, the new calendar systems defined January 1 as the first day of the year.

People who forgot about the change or observed the old rules for other reasons became victims of various jokes. For example, pranksters would discreetly stick paper fish to their backs. In France, the victims of this prank were called Poisson d'Avril, or April Fish.

Biblical theories

Another belief on the April Fool's Day origin points to the biblical character Noah as the first "April Fool". It is said that on April 1, he mistakenly sent the dove out to find dry land before the waters subsided.

A second story tells that the day commemorates when Jesus was sent from Pontius Pilate to Herod and back again. "Sending a man from Pilate to Herod", is an old term for sending someone on a fool's errand.

April Fool's Day in History

Practical jokes and pranks date back to Ancient Roman times. Ancient Romans and Celts celebrated a festival of practical joking around the time of the March equinox.

The Origin of "Fool's Errands"

According to Roman myth, the god Pluto abducted Proserpina to the underworld. Her mother Ceres only heard her daughter's voice echo and searched for her in vain. The fruitless search is believed by some to have inspired the tradition of "fool's errands", practical jokes where people are asked to complete an impossible or imaginary task.

All Fool's Day in British Folklore

British folklore links April Fool's Day to the town of Gotham in Nottinghamshire. According to the legend, it was traditional in the 13th century for any road that the king placed his foot upon to become public property. So when Gotham's citizens heard that King John planned to travel through their town, they refused him entry, not wishing to lose their main road. When the king heard this, he sent soldiers to the town. But when the soldiers arrived in Gotham, they found the town full of fools engaged in foolish activities such as drowning fish. As a result, the king declared the town too foolish to warrant punishment.

Remember When.....

A fun romp through the decades as we approach our clubs 45th anniversary in July 2020.

Highlights from ...1971-1980

While the decade would prove challenging for all automakers due to the oil crisis Chevrolet would remain "USA-1" throughout the '70's. The newly restyled Camaro remained strong with a long list of extras and options such as the rally sport trim and Z-28 packages. Full size models in the Impala and Caprice lines helped offset the poor sales from the Vega line, which was a disappointment for GM, as did the Chevelle and Monte Carlo in the intermediate class. The compact Nova continued its strong sales history accounting for 15% of Chevy's overall sales in 1975. The second half of the decade brought smaller, more fuel efficient vehicles. While this was needed to answer the demands brought on by the fuel embargo/oil crisis, it produced models like the Monza, Chevette and Citation which have not fared well historically with collectors.

Thoughts & Prayers

Please keep Charles Mahaffey, Jan Royster, Jess & Glenna Tomlin, and Gretchen Richart in your thoughts and prayers.

=====

On Sunday, Norma called Jess and Glenna Tomlin. He is doing much better. Glenna's foot still needs another procedure but she is optimistic that it will be successful.

=====

Norma added that no word regarding Jan Royster and Gretchen Richart. Since their facilities are closed to visitors, club members we should send cards or call Wendell and Harold to check on them.

Just received this email from Charles Mahaffey about his health. (The thank you refers to the cancellations & postponements notification.)

" Thanks for all your information. It is very valuable to our club. Last Fri, my post chemo pet scan revealed no tumor activity. God is good. Dr Snider and modern medicine are good. From the bottom of my heart, thanks to all for the support and prayers. Warm regards and love,

Charles and Diana"

=====

Always keep our great country and our military in your prayers.

The Lord is gracious and merciful; slow to anger and abounding in steadfast love.

Yvonna Davis and Dave Walters had their driveway chalked by the two girls who live across the street from us. Part of the Chalk Walk campaign.

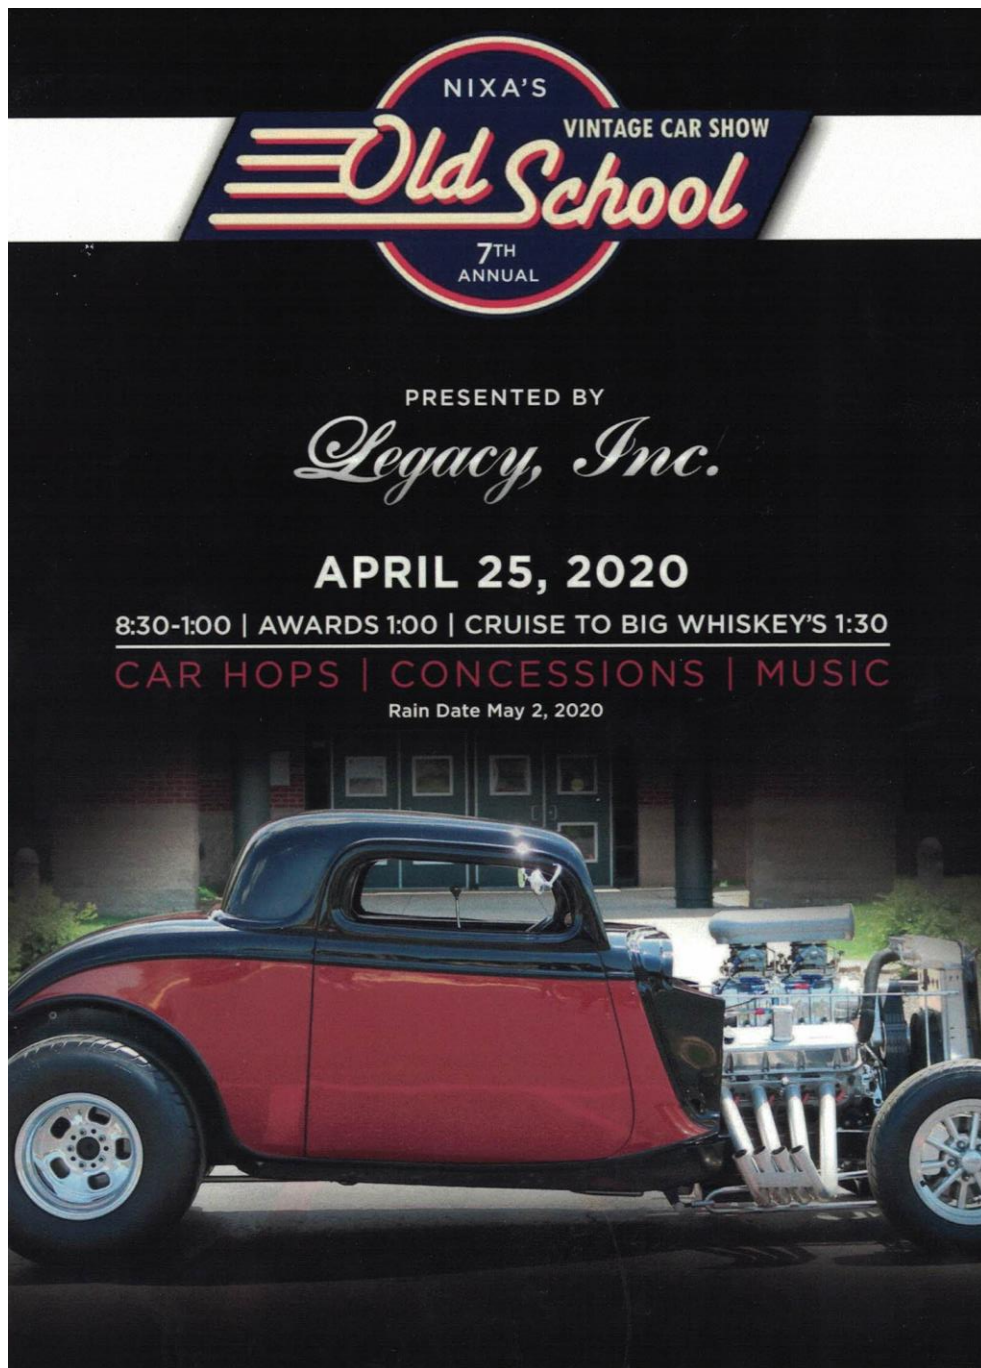

Norma says “Dennis is so bored he says he is going to O’Reilly’s to buy something to do.”

Maybe he could get a mask like this guy has.

If the club schedule shows a day and a month, then the event is going to take place on that day. In other words, confirmed.
