Super Bowl – February 13, 2022

One of the biggest annual sporting events in the United States, the Super Bowl, also sometimes known as the Big Game, is the final championship game of the National Football League (NFL).

The game is the culmination of the football season that begins during the previous year, usually on the Thursday after Labor Day. The first game is known as the NFL Kickoff game.

This year's Super Bowl is set to take place at SoFi Stadium in Inglewood, Calif., the home of the Rams and Chargers, in what will be the first Super Bowl in the Los Angeles area in 29 years.

Is Super Bowl Day a Public Holiday?

Between 2004 and 2021, the Super Bowl was scheduled for the first Sunday of February; however, after changes to the format and schedule in 2021, the showpiece now takes place on the second Sunday in February. Sundays are non-working days in the United States.

Holidays in the United States

How Is the Super Bowl Celebrated in America?

The Super Bowl, also sometimes known as Superbowl, is the most-watched sporting event in the United States and even though it is not an official holiday, many people treat it like a national holiday. To celebrate it, people get together with family and friends to watch the event on television at home or in restaurants and bars.

Super Bowl parties are held all over the country, where people wear the colors or jerseys of their favorite teams. Bars and restaurants usually set up special viewing areas for the live telecast of the game and may offer specials on food and drinks.

Food and drinks are a major part of super bowl parties. Some favorite Big Game foods include chips with Guacamole or Buffalo Chicken Dip, chicken wings, Chili, and pizza. Beer is one of the most-consumed beverages on Super Bowl Sunday.

Half-time Show and Super Bowl Ads

In addition to the game itself, millions of people across the country tune in to watch the half-time show where pop stars, musicians, and singers perform while the players take a break.

Super Bowl commercials are also very popular. The popularity of the Big Game has been used by companies to promote their brands during commercial breaks. The advertisement spaces are highly coveted and companies pay huge premiums to produce and air their ads.

What Is the Super Bowl?

The Super Bowl is the final game of the NFL season, a campaign that usually begins on the Thursday after Labor Day during the previous year. With the exception of the Kickoff Game, most other games are played on Sundays and Mondays, though sometimes, games can be scheduled on other days of the week. 32 teams play 17 games each, making the season 272 games long.

The Workings of an NFL Season

The 32 teams are divided into two conferences—the American Football Conference (AFC) and the National Football Conference (NFC). The 16 teams in each of the conferences are further divided into four divisions: North, South, East, and West Divisions.

During a season, each team in a division plays six times—two games against each of the other teams in that division, one in their home city, and one away from home. In addition, each team plays two home and two on-the-road games against a team from another division in its own conference, as well as four games against teams from a division in the other conference. Two games are also played against teams from the other two divisions in its own conference, one fixture at home and one away, based on division ranking from the previous season. The 17th matchup is a non-conference opponent from a division that a team is not scheduled to meet. Teams are allocated a division that is determined by a rotation system each season.

The Playoffs

The NFL season, which ends in December or January, decides which six teams from each conference qualify for the Playoffs—division winners are automatically eligible. Two wildcard teams are chosen based on their wins during the season.

The Playoffs are played in three rounds: the Wild Card Round, the Divisional Round, and the Conference Championships. The winners of the Conference Championships go on to face each other at the Super Bowl.

History of the Super Bowl in the USA

The first Super Bowl game was played between the National Football League's (NFL) Green Bay Packers and the American Football League's (AFL) Kansas City Chiefs on January 15, 1967, at the Los Angeles Memorial Coliseum in Los Angeles, California. It was the only game in Super Bowl history that was broadcast on more than one TV network. Since then, the game has been broadcast exclusively on one network chosen by a negotiated contract every year.

In 1970, the AFL and NFL formally merged to create the NFL as we know it today. Roman numerals were attached to the Super Bowl in 1971. Since then, all Super Bowls, except Super Bowl 50 played on February 7, 2016, has had a Roman numeral attached to it.

Named After the Super Ball

It is believed that the name Super Bowl was given to the championship by Kansas City Chiefs owner Lamar Hunt who is thought to have been inspired by the then-popular toy, Super Ball

Wisdom from Gene Herndon

From Gene Herndon

Subject: Fender skirts extended version

A term I haven't heard in a long time, and thinking about 'fender skirts' started me thinking about otherwords that quietly disappear from our language with hardly a notice like curb feelers' And 'steering knobs'

Since I'd been thinking of cars, my mind naturally went that direction first

Any kids will probably have to find some older person over 50 to explain some of these terms to you.

Remember 'Continental kits'?

They were rear bumper extenders and spare tire covers that were supposed to make any car as cool as a Lincoln Continental.

When did we quit calling them 'emergency brakes'?

At some point, 'parking brake' became the proper term. But I miss the hint of drama that went with 'emergency brake.'

I'm sad, too, that almost all the old folks are gone who would call the accelerator the 'foot feed.' Many today do not even know what a clutch is or that the dimmer switch used to be on the floor. For that matter, the starter was down there too.

Didn't you ever wait at the street for your daddy to come home, so you could ride the 'running board' up to the house?

Here's a phrase I heard all the time in my youth but never anymore - store-bought.' Of course, just about everything is store-bought these days. But once it was bragging material to have a store-bought dress or a store-bought bag of candy.

'Coast to Coast' is a phrase that once held all sorts of excitement and now means almost nothing. Now we take the term 'worldwide' for granted. That floors me.

On a smaller scale, 'wall-to-wall' was once a magical term in our homes. In the '50s, everyone covered his or her hardwood floors with, wow, wall-to-wall carpeting! Today, everyone replaces their wall-to-wall carpeting with hardwood floors. Go figure.

When was the last time you heard the quaint phrase 'in a family way?' It's hard to imagine that the word 'pregnant' was once considered a little too graphic, a little too clinical for use in polite company, so we had all that talk about stork visits and 'being in a family way' or simply 'expecting.'

Apparently, 'brassiere' is a word no longer in usage? I said it the other day and my daughter cracked up.

I guess it's just 'bra' now. 'Unmentionables' probably wouldn't be understood at all.

I always loved going to the 'picture show,' but I considered 'movie' an affectation.

Most of these words go back to the '50s, but here's a pure '60s word I came across the other day 'rat fink.' Ooh, what a nasty put-down!

Here's a word I miss - 'percolator.' That was just a fun word to say. And what was it replaced with? 'Coffee maker.' How dull... Mr. Coffee, I blame you for this.

I miss those made-up marketing words that were meant to sound so modern and now sound so retro. Words like 'Dyna Flow' and 'Electrolux' and 'Frigidaire'

Introducing the 1963 Admiral TV, now with 'Spectra Vision!'

Food for thought. Was there a telethon that wiped out lumbago? Nobody complains of that anymore. Maybe that's what Castor oil cured, because I never hear mothers threatening kids with Castor Oil anymore.

Some words aren't gone but are definitely on the endangered list.

The one that grieves me most is 'supper.' Now everybody says 'dinner.' Save a great word. Invite someone to supper. Discuss fender skirts.

Someone forwarded this to me. I thought some of us of a 'certain age' would remember most of these. Just for fun, maybe pass it along to others of 'a certain age.'

Just now got a call from Dave Gallegos, and looks like Santa will have an opportunity 2nd race into the season to turn the wrenches on one of two nitro top fuel cars besides the nitro funny car at the Cajun Nationals (Baton Rouge Louisiana) . Without a doubt I'm living a dream, and highly appreciative of being on Team Nitro Clown Motorsports (Manhattan, KS) to be able to do this!

APRIL MEETING WRAP-UP

For those of you who weren't able to attend the club meeting held on April 25th, here is a short summary of the business:

1. Avery Bradley read a letter from Clinton Moore of the Kansas City Club about sponsoring a trophy at the Memorial Day Fun Run. The club voted to sponsor a trophy at a cost of $30.
2. Avery also announced that the Cowtown Nationals Street Rod Run will be opened up to include '55, '56, and '57 Chevies. The dates for the run are June 18th-21st in Kansas City, Ks.
3. Shirley Close announced that the club had received the check from our participation in the Community Club awards. We placed third overall and won a total of $250.
4. It was suggested by several people that Dave try to get the newsletter out a week earlier in the month so members would have more time to plan for the activities.
5. Wendell Royster reported on the progress of the plans for the Fun Run. He noted that several of the committee heads will soon be needing help.

6. The club discussed alternative plans to have members cars judged at the Fun Run without being in competition with our guests cars. We decided to have separate judging for our cars if we can get some members of the other clubs attending the run to volunteer to judge them.

7. The club voted to give the T-shirt transfers that were left from our regional convention in '80 to any club member who might want one.

8. It was voted to have the May club meeting at Phelps Grove Park on May 31st at 4 p.m.

PITTSBURG STATE UNIVERSITY SHOW

The 5th Annual Society of Automotive Engineers' Car Show was held on Sunday, April 26th, at the Pittsburg State University in Pittsburg, Kansas. Several Members of the Classic Chevy Club of Springfield made the short trip over to compete in the show, which is open to all types of vehicles.

Derald and Myrtle St. John, Claude and Karen Rodrique, Jan and Wendell Royster, Gene and Wilma Wright, Avery and Karen Bradley, Karen Bradley's Parents, Pat and Dorcas Sears, Dave Marek, Bud Janes, and Greg Sweet all took advantage of the beautiful spring weather and the opportunity to show off their classics.

There were many, many nice cars at the meet, ranging from nicely restored antique autos and trucks to late model street machines. Since this was a one day event there were no organized activities so most of us just relaxed in the shade and visited with each other and many of the friends we have made on previous runs who were also on hand.

As usual, our club did not come home empty-handed when the trophy winners were announced. Avery Bradley won a second-place trophy in the early classics category, Dave Marek won a second-place and Wendell Royster took the first-place trophy, both in the truck class.

Pat Sears had some minor difficulty when a rocker arm broke just as we got to Carthage, but he located a replacement with no trouble and was soon back on the road.

PATE, TEXAS TRIP

Several members of the Springfield Classic Chevy Club travelled to Pate, Texas, located just south of Ft. Worth, on April 30th through May 3rd to attend one of the largest swap meets in the United States.

8 Early Thursday morning found Gene Wright, Jerry Prier, Bud Janes, Claude Rodrique, Dave Marek, Avery Bradley, Kenny Hurley, and Tom Jones (a good friend of many of our club members) all meeting at Gene's garage and boarding Gene's faithful blue Chevy Van for the trip to Texas. We stopped at Mt. Vernon to gas up at Bill Pendleton's station and meet Kenny Fly, then began the long trip to Dallas, Texas. Dave Marek's brother Doug lives in Dallas and we were all staying with him while in Texas. Greg Sweet was already in Dallas attending a school in relation to his job and he met us at Doug's house on Friday evening.

We arrived in Dallas early Thursday evening and set up camp all over the floor in several of the rooms at Doug's house. After what seemed like an awfully short night's sleep, we set out early Friday morning for the swap meet. When we checked in at the 180 acre site of the meet about 9 a.m. we learned that there were already almost 2,600 spaces rented to vendors. After setting up in our spaces, several of us set out to try to cover the meet. The comment was made that if you couldn't find what you were looking for here, you probably wouldn't find it anywhere. Due to the size of the meet and the bright Texas sun, there were several cases of sore feet and sunburn before the weekend was over.

We had a lot of fun in Texas, and found a lot of parts that we had been looking for, but it sure was nice to roll back into Springfield late Sunday evening and get back to our own homes and families.

(P.S. Be sure and ask Bud about Charlotte)

NEW BUYER'S CLUB

We recently received a letter from Carl Hess, a national Classic Club Member from Osawatamie, Kansas, who is trying to organize a "Classic Buyer's Club."

What Mr. Hess is proposing is to organize a club with a membership fee of $35 to get the necessary cash outlay to buy parts at wholesale prices from repro manufacturers. The price for these parts for members of the club would be the wholesale price plus 10% shipping fee.

Avery Bradley has the letter from Mr. Hess and if anyone is interested in finding out more about this offer, you can contact Avery, or write to Mr. Hess at 1701 Lockhart Lane, Osawatomie, Ks. 66064, or call him at (913) 755-3400.

FUN RUN MEETING

Wendell Royster asked me to put a short article in the newsletter about the Fun Run meetings for May and June so that everyone would know the time and the place for them, as the run is coming up very soon.

The meeting for May will be held on Thursday, May 28th at 7 p.m. at McDonalds Resteraunt on East Battlefield. In June there will be at least two meetings, one on June 11th and one on June 25th, both of them also at McDonalds and probably at the same time as the May meeting, 7 p.m.

The plans for the run are pretty well set, but we need everyone who can possibly attend these meetings there so we can work out schedules for who is to do the various things that need to be done bith before and during the event.

Since this is to be a much more relaxed run than the Regional we hosted last summer, we hope no one will have to work anywhere near as hard as we did for the regional, but the more people who participate in this run, the less each of us will have to do, and everyone will have a lot more time to enjoy the festivities.

So please try to make plans now to come to the meetings and take part in the Fun Run activities so that we can all enjoy it a lot more.

CLUB TRAILER UPDATE

There is an old saying that "All good things must come to an end". What that saying has to do with the following article is probably debatable, other than the fact that the club trailer project has reached it's end.

I know that all of you are probably going to miss these monthly updates on the continuing saga of the trailer building project, but it is a fact that, other than a few minor details, the trailer is ready to roll.

Thanks to the efforts of Dave McHenry and his classes at Vo-Tech School, the trailer has a brand new coat of paint, and all that remains to be done now is the installation of the fenders and the luggage rack on top and a couple of latches for the tailgate and hopefully the trailer will go with us to the Fun Run in St. Joseph on Memorial Day Weekend.

A lot of people in the club have donated lots of the materials used in the construction of the trailer, or donated a lot of time in it's construction, and I think the entire club owes everyone who has had anything to with the project a great big thank you.

I may be just a little biased on the subject, but I think the trailer turned out extremely well, and will serve very well as a sort of travelling banner for the club at the many runs and shows that the various members of the club attend throughout the year.

It would be nice to list all the club members who donated parts and/or helped with the construction of the trailer, but there have been so many that I would probably forget someone, so I'm not going to try.
